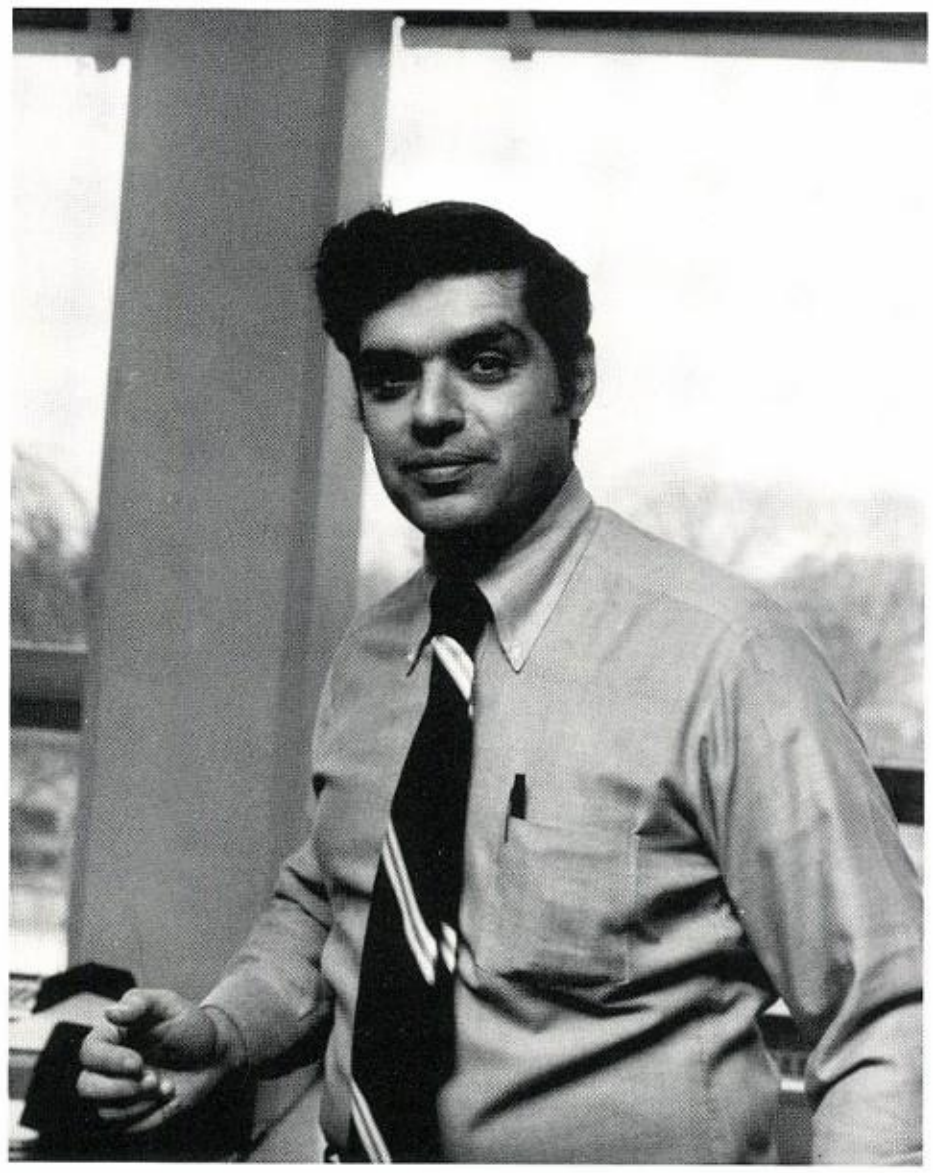
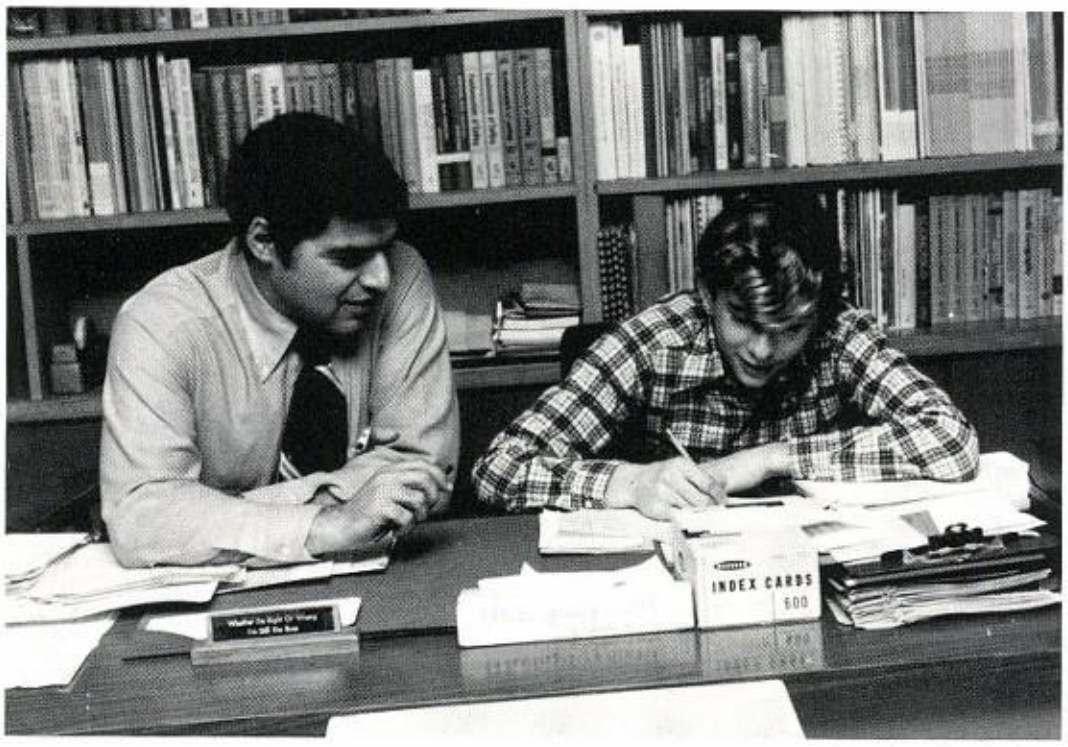
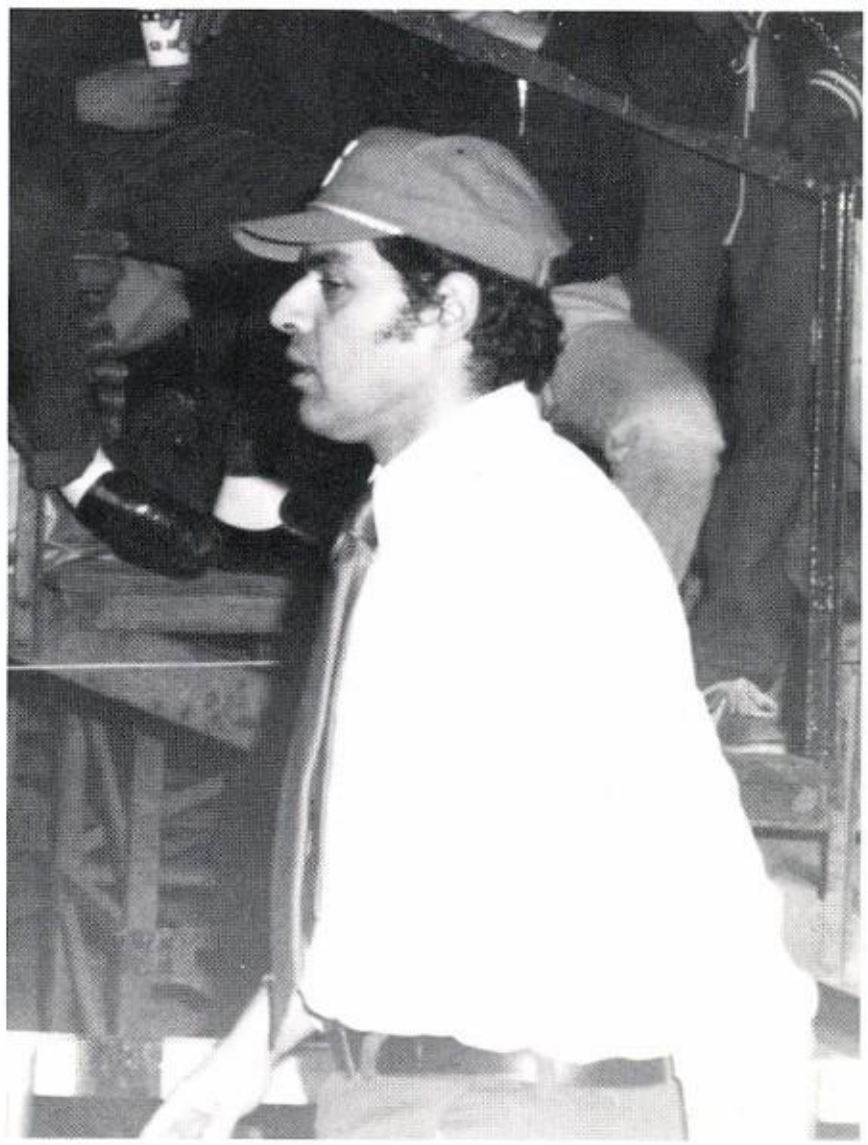
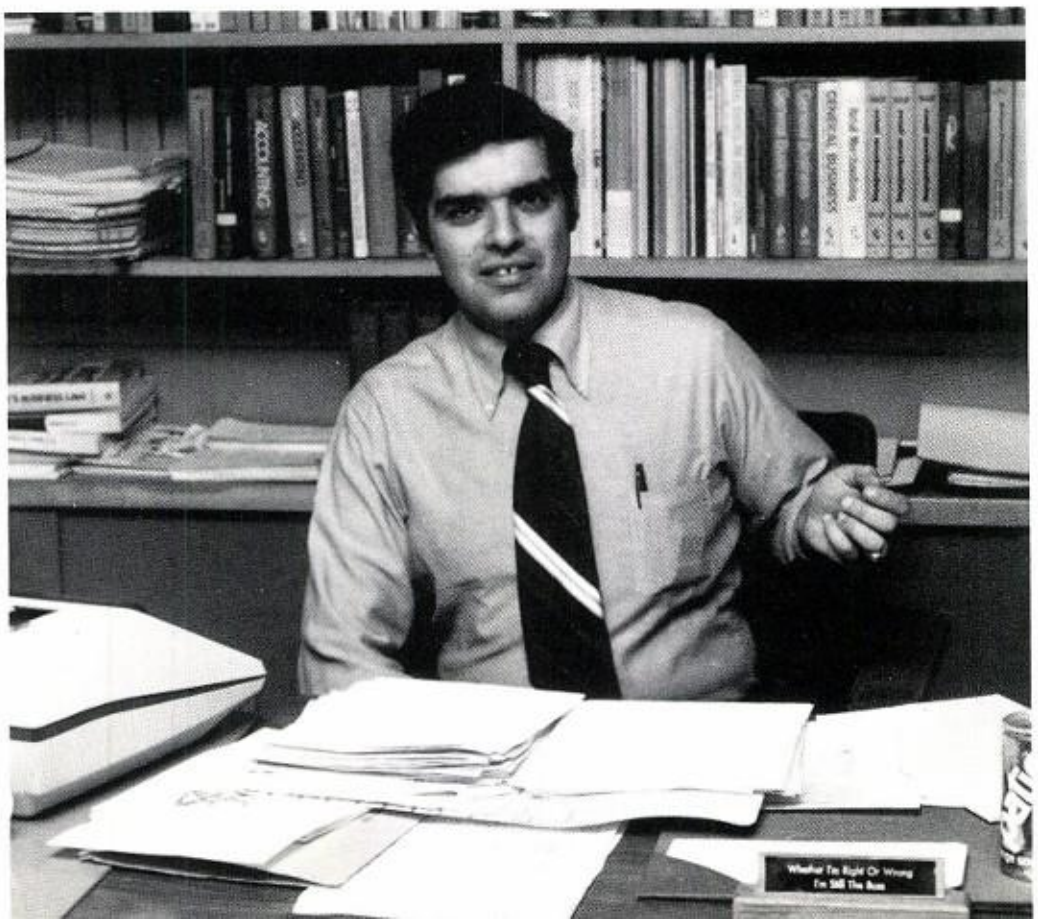
Dedication









Hey A. V.! — We Salute You

We, the Class of 1976, would like to dedicate our yearbook to a man who has given more to us than words could possibly say . . . Mr. Anthony V. Camilli . . . whose dedication, patience, and endless energy took a group of individuals and made us into one; making this a truly great year for all.

Thank you Mr. Camilli, for making us proud to say that we belong to the finest, the Sleepy Hollow High School Class of 1976.

Dear Mrs Beer,
I've really enjoyed ceramics this year, and your encouragement was great! Thanks for always being open to our ideas and suggestions & for always helping us try to find the answers to all the problems the kiln gave us. We'll never forget all the problems we had to tackle, my certain persons, as well as the cake! Take care of yourself & enjoy the summer!

As the nation exults in Renaissance —
Recognizing its weaknesses,
Iterating its virtues;
Reminiscing its Past,
We will reflect on ours, exploring,
Inquiring the Immensities of both, but Never regressing.
For phases of Life
Hardly recur

All the world's a stage, and all the men and women, merely players. They each have their exits and their entrances and one man, in his time plays many parts.

Arlene Twohig

I will go to the woods because I wish to live deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life, and see if I cannot learn what it has to teach.

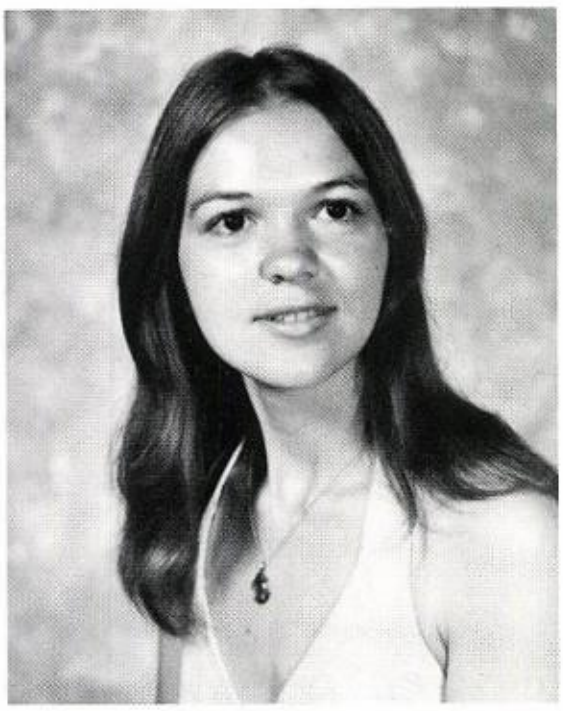
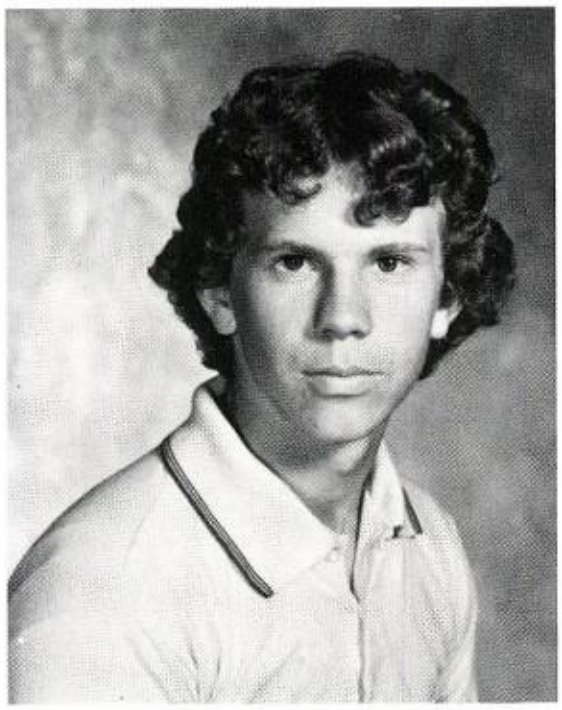
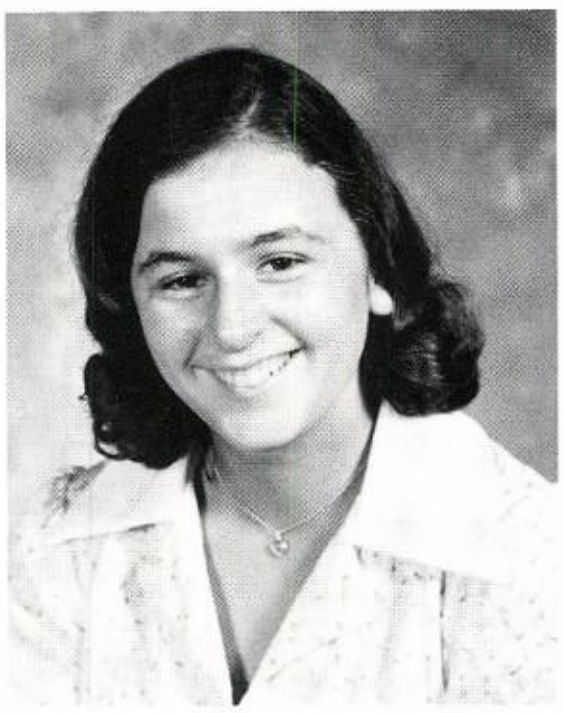
Deolinda Vida



Marianne Rachel Vieweg



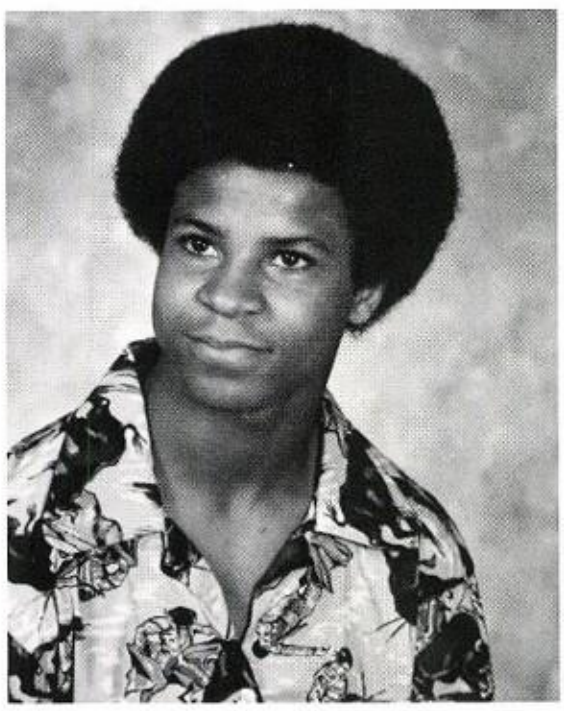
Kenneth Von Glahn



Jeannemarie Walsh

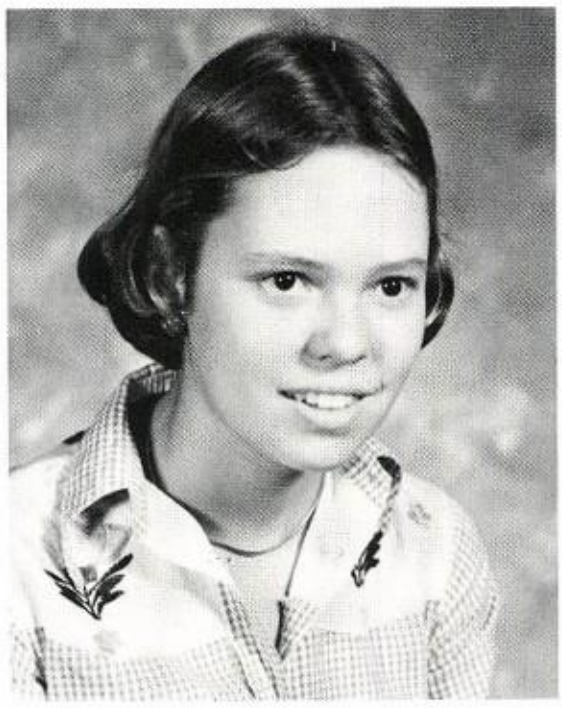
I am a mystery to myself – Always changing, always questioning wondering – always searching for me.

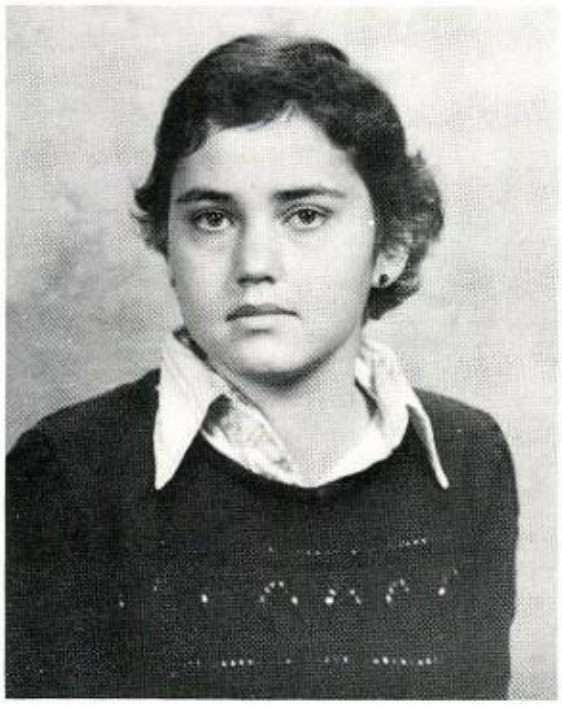
Jimmie Warren



Carol Weiss

Full souls are double mirrors, making still an endless vista of fair things before, repeating things behind

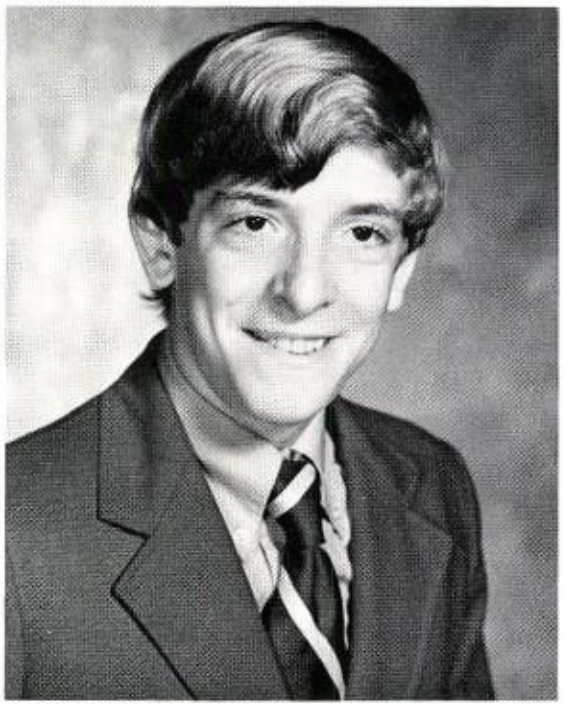




Diana Whitley

Don't let the past remind us of what we are not now.

Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young



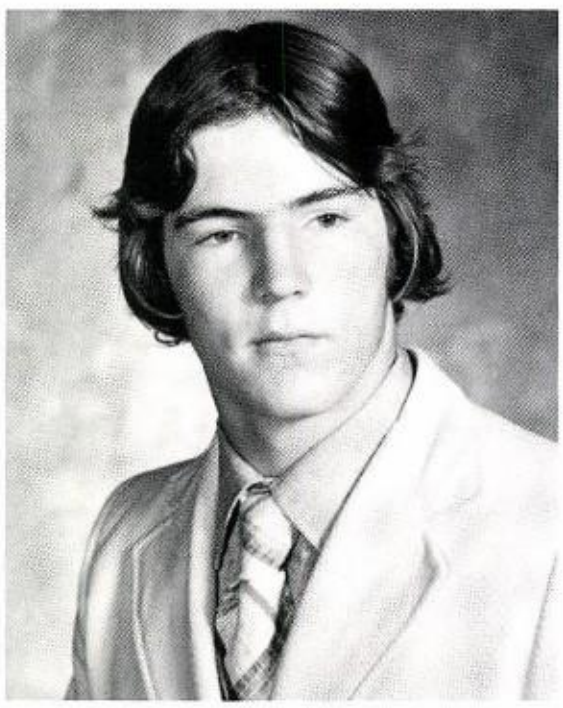
Allen Williams

It's not how much of what you have that counts, it's what you do with what you have that makes all the difference.

Darlene Williams

Elizabeth Wood

Robert Wright

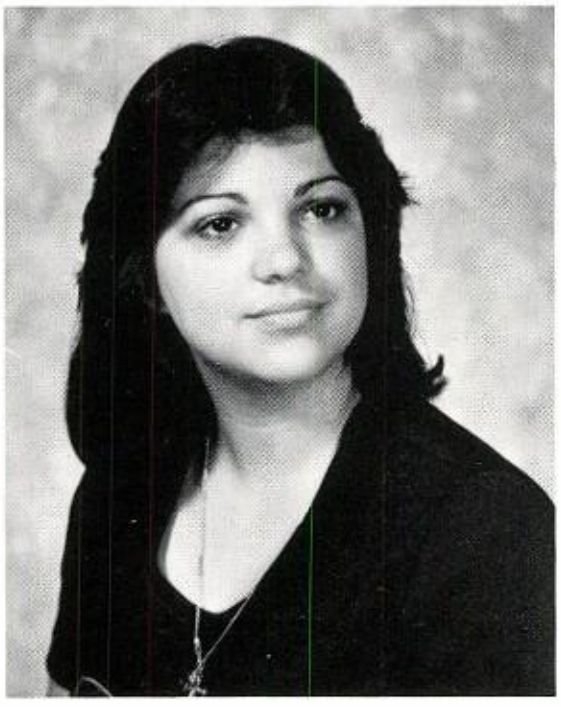


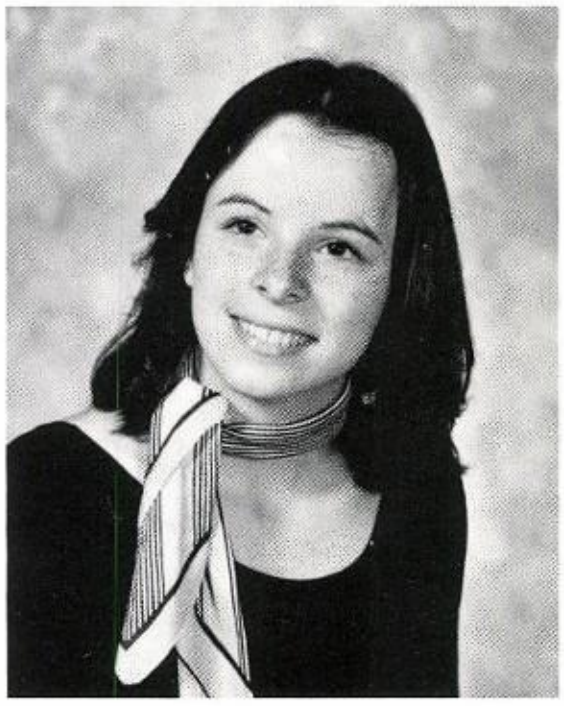
Lorraine Wylock

Dark brown is the river,
golden is the sand,
it flows along forever,
with trees on either land.

Robert Louis Stevenson

Nancy Yumart





Debra Zambrano

I am the ocean; lit by the flame,
I am the mountain; peace is my name.
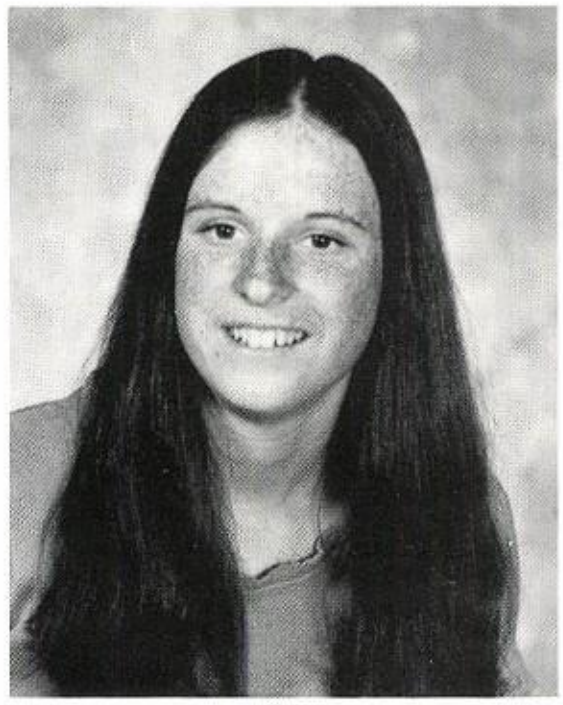
I am the river touched by the wind,
I am the story, I never end.

Cinfield



Diane Zambrano
Love is the active concern for the life and growth of whom we love — a concern that finds expression in care, responsibility, knowledge, respect, and imagination for the other. Remembers: 9/8/73
